RE: Subscriptions to the 21st Century Project Update List

The 21st Century Project has changed the process to subscribe and unsubscribe to the 21st Century Update distribution list. A web-based provider called LISTSERV is now being used instead of Majordomo, the previous list management system. Current subscribers will automatically receive updates via LISTSERV, no action is required.

Subscribing and unsubscribing

Subscription to the 21st Century Update list is now done through the web at <http://www.21stcentury.ca.gov/listserv/>.

Note: The instructions for subscribing to the 21st Century Update list are different than those provided for other State Controller's Office LISTSERV lists (published at <http://www.sco.ca.gov/ppsd/scoltrs/listserv.pdf>).

If you have questions or problems subscribing or unsubscribing, please submit an email to 21stCentury@sco.ca.gov.
